Here's a reminder of what we talked about today.

A Bible verse

We talked about being in a running race and getting a prize. The Bible tells us that if we keep believing in Jesus to the end of our lives, God will give us the fantastic prize of life forever.

When people are tempted and still continue strong, they should be happy. After they have proved their faith, God will reward them with life forever. God promised this to all those who love him.

(James 1:12 from the New Century Version)

A song

We listened to the song Up Times, Down Times. Can you remember the actions?

Here is a link to listen to it again, and some other songs that might help us remember to keep believing in Jesus in good times and bad times:

Things to make and do

We thought about some other ways to remember to keep believing in Jesus until we get the prize:

- We could have a family sports day with prizes for everyone
- We could make medals for ourselves or the people in our family
- We could find the way through a maze (below)

Why don't you try some of these at home? Or maybe you have an idea that you could do?

A prayer

We asked God to help us keep believing in Jesus for our whole lives until we get the prize of living with him forever.

Keep going!

Help Ali find his way through the maze to get the prize at the other end.
