God is in charge of what will happen

We thought about some of the very unexpected things that have happened this year. When we make plans, we don't know if they will happen, but God knows what will happen in the future. God knows everything and loves us very much so we can trust him to look after us.

Ali read from the Bible:

But you do not know what will happen tomorrow!

Your life is like a mist. You can see it for a short time, but then it goes away. So you should say, "If the Lord wants, we will live and do this or that."

(James 4:14-15 from the Bible, New Century Version)

The Bible tells us that it's ok to make plans, but instead of saying, "I'm having a picnic," we should say, "If God wants, I'll still be alive at lunchtime and have a picnic."

Can you remember who is in charge of what will happen to us?

A prayer

We said thank you to God for looking after us each day. We asked God to help us chat to him every day about the things we are looking forward to or worried about.

A song

We sang Great Big God by Vineyard Kids. God looks after us and holds us in his hands!

Things to do at home

- When you talk to your family about what's happening today, you could remind them that God is in charge and what he wants will happen.
- You could pray to God about what's happening today and ask him for help with anything you feel worried about.
- You could write on a calendar what you think will happen this week, if God wants (see separate downloadable calendar).
- You could listen to some songs:
